Dear Misty,

I sure would like to read more about your aunt Millie. About a year ago I bought an old MILLIE THE MODEL comic at a used book store. At the time I wasn't into MILLIE THE MODEL but my mom told me to buy it. If I remember rightly it was a 10 or 12c comic and on the cover Millie's boyfriend mentioned Millie was a good dancer, but her rival put ice down her dress. Well, the sad part of the story is that I ended up returning it. (Boy, am I sorry I did that!) Oh, and Misty, I hope your dream comes true.

Yours Sincerely,
Penelope Wood, age 10
Kelowna, B.C., Canada
(Well, almost 10. It's my birthday August 24!)

Dear Penelope,

My aunt Millie will never forget the time Chili put ice down her dress! And happy birthday—By the time this letter is printed, you'll be ten and a half.

Dear Trina,

I would like to hear more about Misty's aunt Millie as a model. I have a MILLIE THE MODEL comic book from back when my mom was my age and I was very surprised when my grandmother pointed out that "aunt Millie" was Millie the Model.

Carrie Hammerbacker, age 11
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Publishers of MISTY comics,

I recently bought your MISTY comic and I think it's great. I would like to hear the story of aunt Millie when she was a model.

Sincerely,
Anne Cusmano
Massapequa, N.Y.

Dear Carrie and Anne and everybody else who wanted stories about Millie,

Your wish is our command! In the next issue of MISTY, aunt Millie makes her modelling comeback, and in the issue after THAT, you'll find a story in which Millie remembers her old fashions.

Dear Marvel,

My friend just came back from vacation and showed me the first issue of MISTY comic books. I read it, loved it, and wanted more MISTY comics. Just today my friend and I looked through every bookstore and wherever they sell comic books but we couldn't find any MISTY. Isn't there any subscription form to order MISTY comics so we can enjoy them too?

Sincerely,
Patricia Altemura
Alameda, Ca.

Where can you find MISTY comics? I would really like to read them.

Kathy Adams
Ft. Stewart, Ga.

Dear Patricia and Kathy,

I'm sorry to say that you can't subscribe to MISTY just yet, but you should be able to find it at any comic book store. If they DON'T have MISTY at your local comic book store, you should ask the manager to order it for you!

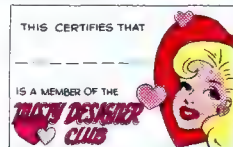

Dear Trina,

My dad has been collecting comic books for years. One day he bought me a MISTY comic book and I read it. It was pretty neat. I like Misty and Spike—They're my favorite characters. I like the way you draw. I hope that some day I'll be able to draw like you. I hope you'll pick out one of my designs.

Your friend,
Allison Baker
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Allison,

Thank you for the compliment, and thank you for your beautiful designs! We received so many terrific fashions for everyone that I'll never again have to wear my barrel, and we'll be using them all in future issues.

Dear Misty,

I do not like school very much. The reason for this is because sometimes it is so boring that I fall asleep, and when I fall asleep I get a detention. What should I do about this?

Yours Truly,
Pui Pui Kwan
Edmonton, Canada

Dear Pui Pui,

I can tell from your letter that you've learned enough from school to spell perfectly and write beautifully, so you couldn't be falling asleep in ALL your classes! I can't help but wonder if there might be some OTHER reason why you're falling asleep. Do you go to bed early enough? Sometimes I'll stay up later than I should, to watch a special TV show. Then in the morning I'll oversleep, and I'll rush out of the house without eating breakfast. By eleven o'clock I'll feel TERRIBLE! I think a good night's sleep and a decent breakfast can make even the DULLEST class more interesting.

Dear Misty,

I need HELP! Whenever me and my friends play I HATE it. The reason why is the next day when I call, my friend is at our friend's house or out. Then, when my other friend answers the phone I hear giggling. That hurts my feelings. I'm HEARTBROKEN.

from Danielle Isasi
Bethpage, New York

Dear Misty,

I have a friend who used to like me. (Her name is Kit.) She used to be my best friend until a new girl came into the 5th grade. Now I ask her if she wants to play on the see-saw and she says "No." When the new girl (Sarah) comes out, Kit says "Sarah, want to go on the see-saw?" Help!

Yours Truly,
Megan Burnett
Westwood, Ma.

Dear Danielle and Megan,

It really hurts when your best friend suddenly ignores you in favor of some new girl. I asked two other girls to help me with this problem. We all agreed that something like that had happened to each of us at some point in our lives, and we decided that the best thing to do is to discuss it with your friend when you're alone with her. She may not realize just how much she's hurting your feelings, unless you tell her. Because this is a problem that affects so many of us, perhaps our readers can help. What would YOU do if you were Danielle or Megan? Send us your suggestions and we'll print them in the next DEAR MISTY!

Till then, don't stop writing, and thank you again for all those fashions, including the shoes, hairdos, earrings, and even the neat story ideas!
